Dear Furman Parent:

While your son or daughter may be away at college, you can keep up with all university happenings by subscribing to The Paladin newspaper for the 2008-2009 academic year.

The Paladin was founded in 1916 and has remained the university's source for campus news ever since. Published on Fridays, the newspaper includes news, student opinions, entertainment, and sports sections to cover a wide array of student interests.

All of the content of the paper is written and edited solely by students. The Paladin remains one of the best college newspapers in the Southeast and in 2007 was named "Best Overall" in the biweekly division by the South Carolina Collegiate Press Association.

I hope that you will decide to subscribe to The Paladin for this upcoming year. Your subscription will include twenty issues of the paper. To subscribe, please fill out the form below and return it to the address listed below with a check for $35 made payable to Furman University.

Your donations are also greatly appreciated and will help improve the publication. Last year, donations were used to update our computers and switch to a higher-quality printing service that offers sharper photos and eight pages of color. This year, we plan to redesign the webpage and continue our high-quality printing.

On behalf of the entire staff of The Paladin, thank you for your time.

Go Paladins!
